EDAC IS CELEBRATING ITS'
30th Anniversary!

Over 30 years EDAC has grown to supporting art in the community with Music by the River, Arts Festival, lectures, workshops, murals, sculptures, concerts, Coffee House, the Courtyard Gallery, grants and high school bursaries. Now to bring all this together EDAC is embarking on a project to acquire a site for a permanent Community Arts Centre for Enderby and district. A year long campaign of raising $225,000 has started with a GoFundMe page by the end of the year has started with a GoFundMe page and can be accessed through our website (enderbyartscouncil.ca) or Facebook page. Donations can also be mailed or dropped off at the Courtyard Gallery. Check out our Facebook and Website.

THE COURTYARD GALLERY & EDAC thanks the community for making 2020 a success.

Your purchases help support local artists and artisans and create a welcoming environment to the public. New lighting has been added and future upgrades are planned including painting the gallery. Thanks to the Jurying Committee, Installation Committee, Management and artists for their many volunteer hours making this facility a success.

SARAH DUDLEY, owner of the Small Axe Roadhouse, is onboard to help raise money for the future Enderby Community Arts Center. She is donating the proceeds from recycled cans and bottles as well as 10% of food sales on Mondays. How can you help? Eat at the Small Axe on Mondays and donate the money of your cans and bottles at The Courtyard Gallery across the street from the bottle depot.

UKE-STRUMENTAL IN C WITH JACKIE BLAND The workshop is for the players who are familiar with basic chords. Enderby Drill Hall on March 28th from 1:00pm to 4:00pm. Cost is $15.00 and limited to 20. Register at The Courtyard Gallery or call 778-443-0529. Bring a uke, music stand, tuner, and pencil.

OPEN EXHIBITION

EDAC thanks the 25 artists and artisans for making this show a success. From stained glass, pottery, wall art, etched glass, wood carvings and lamps there is something for everyone. Come by the Courtyard Gallery to view and vote on your favorite piece. The show runs until Feb 27th.

THE GRINDROD PLAYERS are planning a virtual radio play for spring. They've written, directed and produced farces and comedies to rave reviews for years. EDAC supports this project with the help of a donation to make the video. Watch for future updates.

SUPPORTING THE ARTS

AL Fortunes' Theatre department received a grant of $1000.00 from EDAC to offset costs of their upcoming online musical Beauty and the Beast. Can we help your organization? Go to our website enderbyartscouncil.ca and download the grant application and drop it off at the Courtyard Gallery.

Every child is an artist. The problem is how to remain an artist once he grows up.
